Pardon Me For Not Getting Up by Kelly Roper

Oh dear, if you're reading this right now
I must have given up the ghost.
I hope you can forgive me for being
Such a stiff and unwelcoming host.
Just talk amongst yourself my friends
And share a toast or two,
For I am sure you will remember well
How, I loved to drink with you.
Don't worry about mourning me,
I was never easy to offend,
Feel free to share a story at my expense
And we'll have a good laugh at the end.

Happy The Man by John Dryden

Happy the man, and happy he alone,
He who can call today his own.
He who, secure within, can say,
Tomorrow do thy worst, for I have lived today.

Be fair or foul or rain or shine
The joys I have possessed, in spite of fate, are mine.
Not Heaven itself upon the past has power,
But what has been, has been, and I have had my hour.
