REMEMBERING GLENYS

POEM

Fighting A June Farewell written and read by Emily

As you lay there,
sick and sleeping,
we knew not how much time we had.

So we talked,
and we talked about everything and nothing.

The meaning of your three tattoos,
your favourite songs,
and the boring stories that had made the news.

I was told that twenty-two was your favourite number.
So sitting beside you,
I asked,

'I'm twenty-two next month.
Could you wait for me until then?'

You fought for five days until you couldn't anymore.

I'm not mad at you though.

I could never be.

Weep Not For Me
Author Unknown
read by Natasha

Weep not for me though I have gone Into that gentle night
Grieve if you will, but not for long Upon my soul's sweet fight

I am at peace, my soul's at rest
 There is no need for tears
For with your love I was so blessed For all those many years

There is no pain, I suffer not
 The fear is now all gone
Put now these things out of your thoughts
 In your memory I live on

Remember not my fight for breath
 Remember not the strife
Please do not dwell upon my death
 But celebrate my life
