WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

POEM

Silent Strong Dad

read by Terri

He never looked for praises,
He was never one to boast;
He just went on quietly working
For those he loved the most.

His dreams were seldom spoken,
His wants were very few,
And most of the time, his worries
Went unspoken too.

He's was there... A firm foundation
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold to
In times of stress and strife.

A true friend we could turn to
When times are good or bad,
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that we called our dad and grandad.

COMMITTAL AND FAREWELL

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

read by Keith Brown

Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to.
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever, locked safely within your heart.
