WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

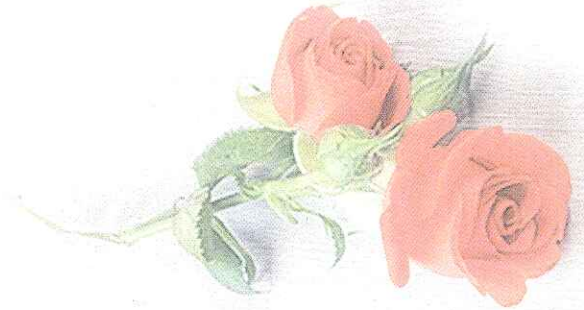

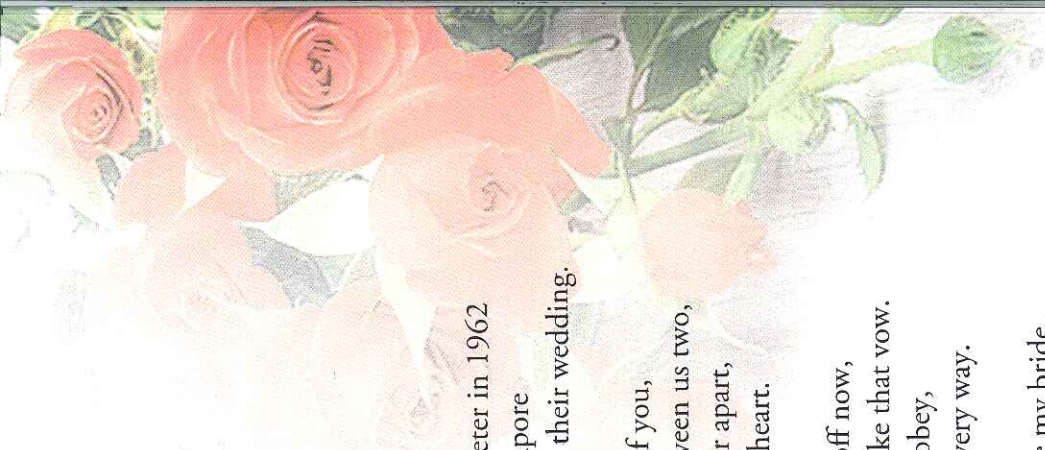

POEM

Letter To Janet, written by Peter in 1962
whilst he was in Singapore awaiting the arrival of Janet and their wedding.

As I sit here thinking of you,
I think of the love that's between us two,
And though we are so far apart,
I hold you near in my heart.

There is a time, not far off now,
When we'll be together, to take that vow.
To love, honour and obey,
And trust each other in every way.

Now you're here and you're my bride,
Our love for each other we cannot hide.
And I am yours and you are mine,
Together forever until the end of time.
