Hymn

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Scottish Psalter (1650)

Still Trucking From Above by Samuel Barradas

I have a warm and friendly feeling as I think of you each day,
And I wish we could visit again, but you're many miles away.

I've heard you spin many a yarn and even say, "You bet."

A better person I've become, because one day we had met.

We have been blessed with a truck driver, whom we have all come to love.

God's hand was always watching him and sometimes even driving from above.

He travels freely now over heaven's rolling hills to its shining sea.

He was a special man God made just for you and me.

As heaven and earth now divide us, the special memories of you bring us near,

The common things of life we shared, laughter and sometimes a heartfelt tear.

So, Father in heaven, hear my prayer: when I think of our beloved one each day,

Please protect our husband, father and friend while he's many, many miles away.
