Poem

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me and I'm not there to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes are filled with tears for me,
I wish so much you wouldn't cry, the way you did today
While thinking of the many things we didn't get to say.
I know how much you loved me, as much as I loved you,
And each time you think of me, I know you'll miss me too,
But, when tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,
That the angel came and called my name and took me by the hand.
When tomorrow starts without me, don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.

Reflection Music

The First Time Ever I Saw Your Face by Leona Lewis

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;

Thy Kingdom come;

Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Committal

Poem Farming

It is a job, full of long hours, in all temperatures, and lots of hard work.

But it is so much more than that.

It is scars, callouses, broken bones, stitches, and bruises.

It is sunshine and storms, dirt under your nails, and straw in your boots

It is early mornings, late nights, and long days.

It is the joy of a good harvest, the beauty of a sunset, the peace in the barns.

It is a calf in your kitchen, a dog in your truck, and freedom in your soul.

It is faith, determination, and accomplishment.

It is fears, tears, laughter, and love.

It is a way of life, a sense of pride, family affair.

It is home. And there is no place I would rather be.

And as Richard would say,
'As long as you have a six inch nail and some bailer twine, you're okay.'
