

A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF JONATHAN GAULD

29th December 1967 - 7th August 2023

Wilford Hill Crematorium
Friday 15th September 2023 at 1.00 pm

A misty autumn forest scene with trees and a path. The trees have vibrant orange and yellow leaves, and the ground is covered in fallen leaves. A path winds through the trees, and a large tree trunk is visible in the foreground on the right. The overall atmosphere is serene and peaceful.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

PSALM 23

The Lord's my shepherd; I'll not want.
He makes me down to lie
in pastures green; he leadeth me
the quiet waters by.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
yet will I fear no ill;
for thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

Goodness and mercy all my life
shall surely follow me,
and in God's house forevermore my dwelling-place shall be.

POEM

He Is Gone

by David Harkins

read by Jonathan's friend, Andy Baker

You can shed tears that he is gone,
Or you can smile because he has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back,
Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see him,
Or you can be full of the love that you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday,
Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember him and only that he is gone,
Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back,
Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
forever and ever.

Amen.
