WORDS OF WELCOME

HYMN

All Things Bright And Beautiful

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Each little flower that opens,
Each little bird that sings,
He made their glowing colours,
He made their tiny wings:
All things bright and beautiful...

The cold wind in the winter,
The pleasant summer sun,
The ripe fruits in the garden,
He made them every one:
All things bright and beautiful...

He gave us eyes to see them,
And lips that we might tell
How great is God Almighty,
Who has made all things well:

*All things bright and beautiful,
All creatures great and small,
All things wise and wonderful,
The Lord God made them all.*

Cecil Frances Humphreys Alexander (1818-1895)

A TRIBUTE IN VERSE

Written and read by granddaughters, Jasmine, Rosie and Lilly-Mae

God guided you to the gates of heaven, as he saw you getting tired,

He knew a cure was not to be,

so he put his arms around you and whispered, 'Come to me.'

Although your dying wish was to see me spread my wings,
I'll make my 18th great for you, let's see what that day brings.

Your eyes were so tired, your mind was so lost,
We weren't ready to lose you, it felt such a huge loss.

But we soon had to realise you had it worse than us.

We had to let you go. We knew it was a must.

We love you, Granddad, and want to let you know
You mean the world to us, and we never wanted to let you go.

We think of you every night before we go to bed,

You gave a good fight but had to lay your head.

Although you may have lost, you did try your best.

No one can say you didn't, but now it's time for you to rest.

Your wife and daughters love you dearly, their knight in shining armour.

Your heart was golden, clearly... You weren't like any other.

You're our shooting star, like scattered moon dust in the sky.

Our hearts had never been so broken, until we had to say goodbye.

Your passing was so sudden; we had no time at all.

We have our memories to look back on. They were all a ball.

Although we cannot hear your voice, or see your smiling face,

We feel you watch and call us, it helps us set a base,

This isn't goodbye, nor a time to be low;

Your journey starts now; to heaven you go.
