WELCOME AND OPENING WORDS

POEM

Silent, Strong Dad

He never looked for praises,
He was never one to boast.
He just went on quietly working
For those he loved the most.

His dreams were seldom spoken,
His wants were very few,
And most of the time his worries
Went unspoken, too.

He was there, a firm foundation
Through all our storms of life,
A sturdy hand to hold to
In times of stress and strife.

A true friend we could turn to
When times are good or bad,
One of our greatest blessings,
The man that we called our dad and grandad.

COMMITTAL AND FAREWELL

He Has Achieved Success

He has achieved success who has lived well, laughed often and loved much:
who has enjoyed the trust of a pure woman,
the respect of intelligent men and the love of little children;
who has filled the niche and accomplished his task;
who has left the world better than he found it;
whether by an improved poppy,
a perfect poem, or a rescued soul;
a man who has never lacked appreciation of Earth's beauty
or failed to express it;
who has always looked for the best in others
and given the best he had.
Whose life was an inspiration;
whose memory a benediction long after this day.
