

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
BRIAN FREDERICK DODD

30th December 1944 - 30th April 2019

Gedling Crematorium
Thursday 23rd May 2019 at 3.30 pm

A soft, misty landscape featuring a river or stream winding through a lush, green environment. The scene is dominated by dense foliage, including tall reeds in the foreground and various trees with vibrant green leaves. The atmosphere is calm and ethereal, with a light, hazy glow that softens the details of the natural surroundings. The text 'ORDER OF SERVICE' is centered in the middle of the image in a classic, black serif font.

ORDER OF SERVICE

A misty forest path with a dirt road on the right and dense green foliage on the left. The scene is soft and ethereal, with sunlight filtering through the trees.

COMMITTAL

CLOSING POEM

If I Had A Voice

If I had a voice today, I'd say,
'Dear ones, please don't cry.
Still love me, but don't grieve for me,
It's easy if you try.

Don't think of all that I won't see,
Just think of what I've seen.
Think not of places I won't go,
But remember where I've been.

I've lived, I've loved, I've laughed, I've cried,
I've worked hard, that's for sure.
I've done my best, I'm satisfied,
I couldn't ask for more.

I know not what becomes of me,
Nor what's beyond today.
If I had a choice I'd use my voice,
But alas, I've gone away.

You have memories of me to enjoy -
Smile, laugh, be tough.
You have loved me and enriched my life;
I was happy, that's enough!
