Processional Music

Pie Jesu by Katherine Jenkins

As the gentle breeze of springtime warms the winter world, a new year begins.
As the golden sun of morning scatters the shadows of the night a new day begins.
As our Lord Jesus Christ reaches out to take our hand at the gates of the Heavenly Realms then so a new life begins.

Introduction

by Reverend Peter White

Reading

Her Journeys Just Begun
read by daughter-in-law, Sara

Don't think of me as gone away
My journey's just begun
Life holds so many facets
This earth is but one
Just think of me as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years
Think of how I must be wishing
That you could know today
How nothing but your sadness
Can really go away
And think of me as living
In the hearts of those I touched
For nothing loved is ever lost
And I know I was loved so much

Reflecting on Marlene's Life

Music for Reflection

Yesterday Once More by The Carpenters

Prayers of Farewell

No person is truly alone
Those who live no more, whom we love
Echo still within our thoughts, our words, our hearts
And what they did and who they are
Become a part of all that we are forever

Music for Reflection

Dear Friends by Queen

The Poet Samuel Butler Wrote, and I quote:

“I fall asleep in the full and certain hope that my slumber shall not be broken;
And that though I be all-forgetting,
Yet shall I not be forgotten,
But continue life in thoughts and deeds of those I loved.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.

Closing Words

The clock of life is wound but once,
And no man has the power
To tell just when the hands will stop
At late or early hour.

To lose one's wealth is sad indeed,
To lose one's health is more,
To lose one's soul is such a loss
That no man can restore.

The present only is our own,
So live, love, toil with a will,
Place no faith in "Tomorrow,"
For the Clock may then be still."
