IRISH BLESSING
'May The Road Rise Up To Meet You'
read by Joe's daughter, Sonia

May the road rise up to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
And rains fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

'The True Knowledge'
by Oscar Wilde, read by Joe's son Sean

Thou knowest all; I seek in vain
What lands to till or sow with seed
The land is black with briar and weed,
Nor cares for falling tears or rain.

Thou knowest all; I sit and wait
With blinded eyes and hands that fail,
Till the last lifting of the veil
And the first opening of the gate.

Thou knowest all; I cannot see
I trust I shall not live in vain,
I know that we shall meet again
In some divine eternity.
