Mothers
read by Nathan

You can only have one mother,
Patient, kind and true;
No other friend in all the world
Will be the same to you.

When other friends forsake you,
To your mother you will turn.
For all her loving kindness,
She asks nothing in return.

As we look upon her picture,
Sweet memories we recall
Of a face so full of sunshine
And a smile for one and all.

Her life was love and labour,
Her love for her family true.
She did her best for everyone
And now says -
God bless you.

God's Garden
read by Wendy

God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked upon the earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain;
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb,
So He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

It breaks our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

The background of the page features a soft-focus image of yellow hibiscus flowers with green leaves, arranged in a circular pattern around the central text.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
