POEMS AND READINGS

written by Stella

Annie,

I miss you, my friend, and as I get more tired
there are things that must be said.
You have been a good friend to me and nothing less.

I hope we get the chance to get some special time,
just for me and you.

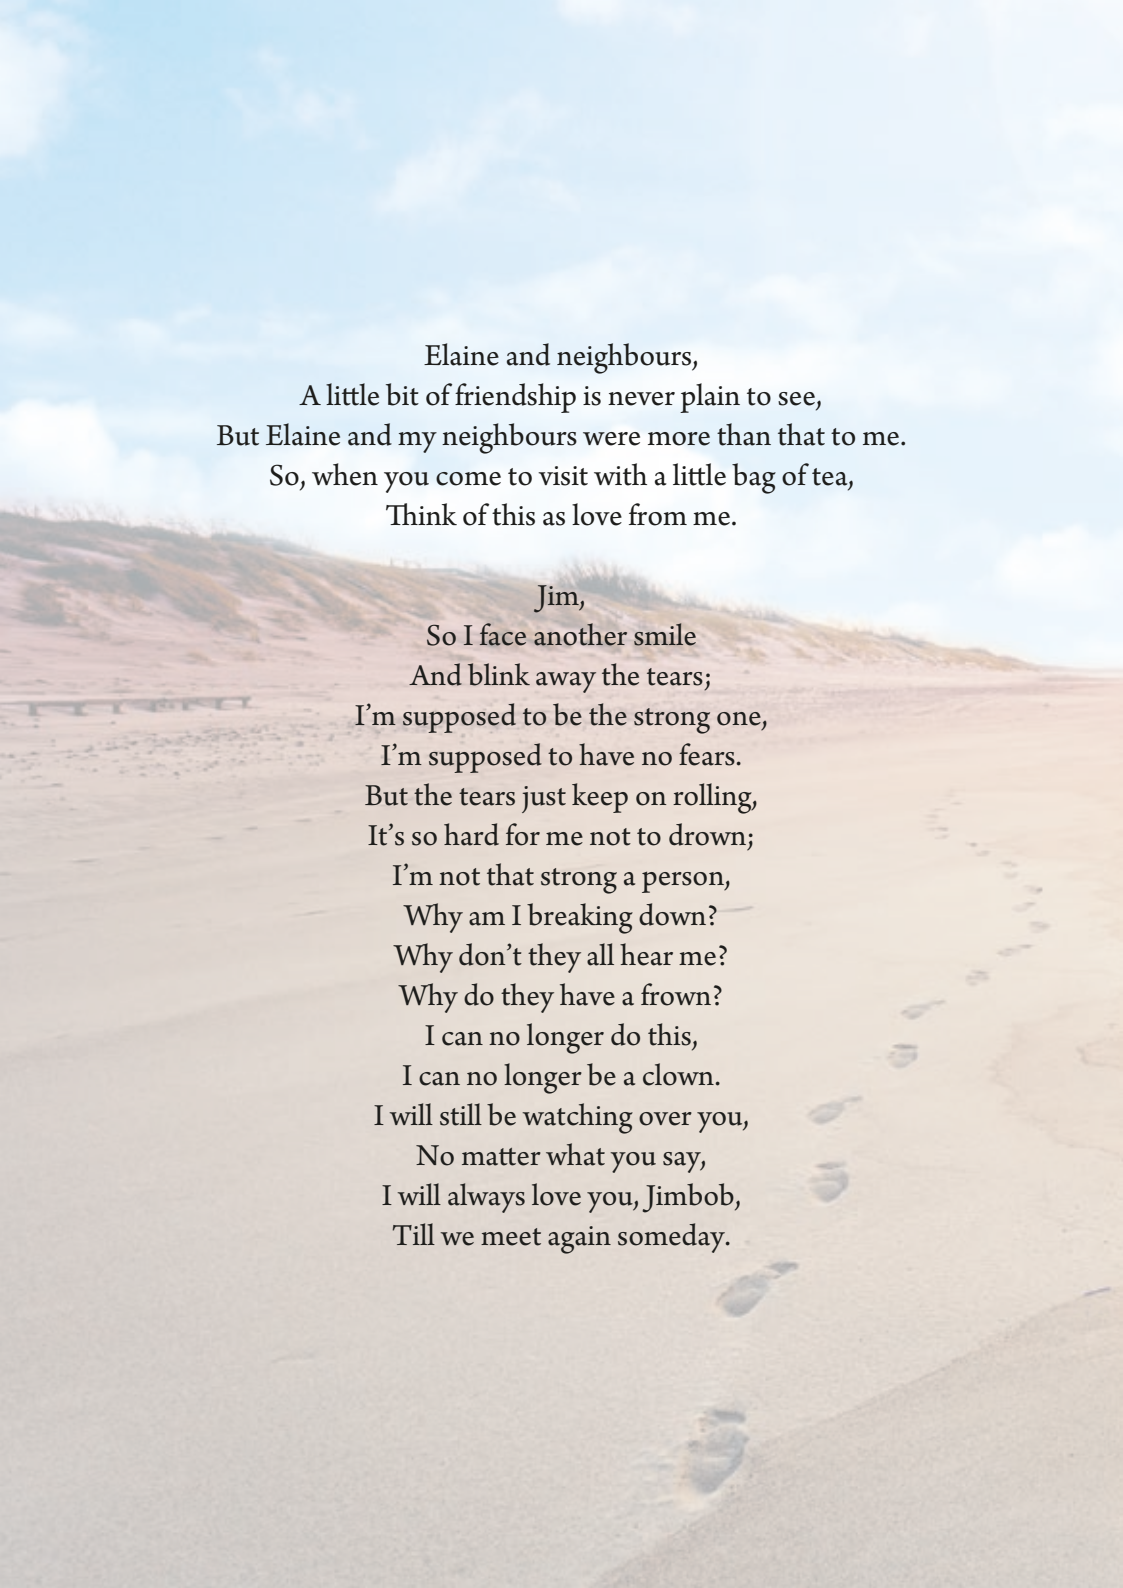

But if not, you will hear me whisper, "I love you."

Hope you feel better soon.

Lots of love.

Stacey,

Someday when the pages of my life end
I know that you will be one of the most beautiful chapters.
You will always be part of me, so just when I think my daughter is nothing like me, she proudly shows the world her don't-mess-with-me attitude.
Then I say to myself - ah ha! There I am!

Elaine and neighbours,
A little bit of friendship is never plain to see,
But Elaine and my neighbours were more than that to me.
So, when you come to visit with a little bag of tea,
Think of this as love from me.

Jim,
So I face another smile
And blink away the tears;
I'm supposed to be the strong one,
I'm supposed to have no fears.
But the tears just keep on rolling,
It's so hard for me not to drown;
I'm not that strong a person,
Why am I breaking down?
Why don't they all hear me?
Why do they have a frown?
I can no longer do this,
I can no longer be a clown.
I will still be watching over you,
No matter what you say,
I will always love you, Jimbob,
Till we meet again someday.

FINAL FAREWELL AND COMMITTAL

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,

and forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us,

and lead us not into temptation,

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

the power, and the glory,

for ever and ever. Amen.
