Poem for Mac

The Fallen Limb

read by Caroline Denham

A limb has fallen from the family tree.
I hear a voice that whispers 'Grieve not for me,
Remember the best times, the laughter, the songs
The good life I lived while I was strong.
Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you
Keep on smiling, the sun will shine through.
My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest
Remembering all... how I was truly blessed.
Continue traditions, no matter how small
Go on with your lives, don't stare at the wall
I miss you all dearly so keep up your chin
Until that fine day we're together again.
