Memories In The Heart

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she's not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to,
She'd hope that you can carry on, the way you always do.
So talk about the good times and the ways you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you. A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here
And fills you with the feelings that she is always near.
For if you keep these moments you will never be apart
And she will live forever, locked safe within your heart

Committal and Farewell

Poem

Where Do They Go To

Where do they go to, the people who leave?
Are they around us in the cool evening breeze?
Do they still hear us and watch us each day?
I'd like you to think of them with us that way.

Where do they go to, when no longer here?
I think that they stay with us, calming our fear.
Loving us always, holding our hands,
Walking beside us, on grass or on sand.

Where do they go to? Well, it's my belief,
They watch us and help us to cope with our grief.
They comfort and stay with us, through each of our days,
Guiding us always through life's mortal maze.
