Reading

Grandma's Garden
read by Eoin

I remember Grandma's garden,
The beauty and the grace
Of all the lovely flowers
In that dear, sweet place.

I remember Grandma's smile
As she planted, pruned, and tilled,
Labouring with love and laughter
As this world with joy she filled.

I remember Grandma's patience
When we ran amid the flowers,
With her beauty all around us
We would spend those precious hours.

I remember Grandma's garden
And I'm happy in the knowing
That when she knelt there in the soil,
It wasn't just flowers she was growing.

Reading

Memories Of The Heart
read by grandson, James

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to,
She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you. A word someone may say,
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
For if you keep those moments you will never be apart
And she will live forever, locked safe within your hearts.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come; thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
