aged 79 years

Sherwood Forest Crematorium

Wednesday 15th November 2017

1.00pm

*It doesn't need a special day
To bring you to my mind
For days without a thought of you
Are very hard to find*

We enter the chapel to the first piece of music chosen by Shirley for this moment.

TIME TO SAY GOODBYE
Andrea Bocelli and Sarah Brightman

Introduction and Welcome

Tribute

We look back now at the life and times of Shirley – the holidays, the family times, the time and care she gave.

Reflection

We remember Shirley now in our own way as we sit quietly and listen to another chosen for us now.

*A chance to recall our own memories.
Shirley was a fan of Doris Day over the years.*

QUE SERA SERA
Doris Day

Poem

A short poem at the request of the family

Committal

Exit the Chapel

We leave the chapel to another chosen by Shirley for this time.

STRANGERS IN THE NIGHT

Frank Sinatra

You can make a donation as you leave this chapel
in Shirley's memory,
if you wish, to Breast Cancer Support.

You are also welcome now to join the family
as they continue this celebration of her life at the Conservative Club in Newark.
