Amazing Grace

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see,
Was blind, but now I see.

Tribute

To Our Amazing Grandad

Love always, Josh, Èrène (Mama Lucci) and Isaac

♥ Our grandad, our kind and gentle man, so tall and proud and strong,
The day you left you gained your wings, you'd fought to stay so long.

With love, you now watch over us, we feel your loving gaze,
Although we cannot hear your voice or see your smiling face.
We know you'll be right by our side, the times we need a guide,
But missing you will never stop, though many tears we've cried.

You'll help us to grow, to learn, to choose the things we know are right,
Each day with the rising of the sun and the falling of night.
Your eternal love for us we feel, the bond will never break,
Your loving hugs and brightest smile through life with us we'll take.

As time passes by our tears may dry, our hearts perhaps will mend,
But our love for you, our kind grandad, our love will never end.
The memories we have of you are fond and filled with fun,
But for you, we know, in paradise, more memories have begun.

And though we are full of sadness that you're no longer here,
Your energy still guides us, and we'll forever keep you near.
Granddad, we want so much to bring you back, but for this there is no way,
With each other we'll share our memories so in our hearts you'll stay.

We promise you, we'll make you proud, we'll strive to do our best,
Thank you, our dearest grandad, now in paradise you'll rest. ♥

The Old Rugged Cross

On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
The emblem of suffering and shame;
And I love that old cross where the dearest and best
For a world of lost sinners was slain.

(Chorus)

*So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies on earth I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.*

On the old rugged cross, so despised by the world,
As a wondrous attraction to bear;
For the dear Lamb of God left His glory above
To bear it to dark Calvary.

(Chorus)

*So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
Till my trophies on earth I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
And exchange it some day for a crown.*

(Repeat chorus x2)

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the mighty thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Chorus:

*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!*

When through the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

Chorus

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing,
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in:
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sins.

(Repeat chorus x2)

The interment will now follow at Northern Cemetery,
