About Patricia
by Tony Godfrey

Poem
The Broken Chain
read by Patricia's sister, Anne

We little knew that day,
That God was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

You left us beautiful memories,
Your love is still our guide,
And although we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.

Our family chain is broken
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

Poem
Feel No Guilt In Laughter
read by Tony Godfrey

Feel no guilt in laughter, she knows how much you care,
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she's not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever, she would not want you to,
She'd hope that you can carry on the way you always do.
So talk about the good times and the ways you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here
And fills you with the feelings that she is always near.
For if you keep these moments you will never be apart
And she will live forever, locked safe within your heart.
