Words of Welcome and Introduction

Psalm 23

NIV

read by Pennie

A psalm of David.

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
he refreshes my soul.

He guides me along the right paths
for his name's sake.

Even though I walk
through the darkest valley,

I will fear no evil,
for you are with me;
your rod and your staff,
they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely your goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A Walk In The Valleys

Take me where the waters flow,
Where dashing waves of light doth show,
Betwixt the hues of green and brown,
Crashing forth your healing sounds.
Just for a while I stand and stare,
I ponder on what life flows there.
Beneath the crashing waves of light
A fallen leaf gives up its fight.
Life like the river hurries on Ne'er looking back
From whence it's gone.
