POEM
A Letter From Heaven

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes,
Filled with tears for me.

I wish so much you wouldn't cry,
The way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We didn't get to say.

I know how much you love me,
As much as I love you,
And each time you think of me
I know you'll miss me, too.

When tomorrow starts without me
Don't think we're far apart,
For every time you think of me
I'm right there in your heart.

A serene sunset over a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and the water. The sky is filled with soft, wispy clouds, and the ocean waves are gently crashing onto the sandy shore. The overall mood is peaceful and reflective.

FINAL WORDS OF FAREWELL

PRAYER

Eternal God, we praise you for the company of all those who have finished their course in faith and now rest from their labour.

We praise you for those dear to us whom we name in our hearts before you.

Especially we praise you for John Henry Greaves, whom you have graciously received into your presence.

To all of these, grant your peace.

Let perpetual light shine upon them;
and help us so to believe where we have not seen,
that your presence may lead us through our years,
and bring us at last with them into the joy of your home
not made with hands but eternal in the heavens;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

POEM
Remember Me

Speak of me as you have always done.
Remember the good times, laughter, and fun.

Share the happy memories we've made.
Do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer's sun
And when the winter's chill has come.

I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze.
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
But memories we've shared are yours to keep.

Sometimes our final days may be a test,
But remember me when I was at my best.

Although things may not be the same,
Don't be afraid to use my name.

Let your sorrow last for just a while.
Comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun.
Live on now, make me proud of what you'll become.
