POEM

'Leisure'

William Henry Davies

What is this life if, full of care,
we have no time to stand and stare.
No time to stand beneath the boughs
and stare as long as sheep or cows.
No time to see, when woods we pass,
where squirrels hide their nuts in grass.
No time to see in broad daylight,
streams full of stars, like skies at night.
No time to turn at beauty's glance,
and watch her feet, how they can dance.
No time to wait till her mouth can enrich that smile her eyes began.
A poor life this if, full of care
we have no time to stand and stare.

WORDS OF COMFORT

'When sunlight fades'

Written especially for today by Brian's sister Brenda

When sunlight fades and darkness falls,
skies lit by just one moon,
we think of all the ones we've lost,
and cry out "Gone too soon."
But in this time of sadness,
look up to see a star.
Think about all those we've lost,
and know that there they are!
As our light on Earth grows dim,
shining just in a loved one's heart.
The light that is our loved one,
shines out in the dark.
It joins with all the other stars.
Pure energy from above,
sending out everywhere, unconditional love.
So, cry your tears and feel your pain,
as your years on Earth go by.
And remember that the light we are,
Will never, ever die!
