Thoughts On Life

How quickly time can hurry by,
How fast the minutes multiply.
How soon the winters turn to spring,
How brief the warmth that summers bring.

Before we know it, boys are men,
Never to be boys again.
And girls are very soon full grown,
With little children of their own.

But, oh how sweet those childhood days,
Remembered in so many ways.
When laughter quickly followed tears
And months grew slowly into years.

When hours were filled with hopeful dreams
Of youthful plans, ambitious schemes,
And there were many songs to sing
Of all the joys that life could bring.

But now those yesterdays are gone
And time moves resolutely on.
So as the moments slip away,
Be grateful for each single day.

Just try to make the most of life,
Despite the worry and the strife.
And think, with every bright new morn,
Another hope-filled day is born.

Miss You Nights

Poem

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep
read by Lindsey Davison, granddaughter

Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamonds glint on snow.
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awake in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quite birds in a circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not stand at my grave and weep;
I am not there, I do not sleep.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd, I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters,
he refreshes my soul.

He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the darkest valley.

I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.

You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.

Surely your goodness and love will follow me
all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory,
Forever and ever.
Amen.
