Eternal Perspectives
by Randy Alcorn

I'm standing on the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She's an object of beauty and strength and I stand and watch her, until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come down to mingle with each other, and then I hear someone at my side saying, 'There, she's gone.'

Gone where? Gone from my sight, that's all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side, and just as able to bear her load of living freight to the place of destination. Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And just at the moment when someone at my side says, 'There, she's gone,' there are other eyes watching her coming and there are other voices ready to take up the glad shout, 'Here she comes.'

And that is dying.

And did you get what you wanted from this life, even so?
I did.

And what did you want?
To call myself beloved, to feel myself beloved on the earth.

The family would like to thank everyone for their kind words and support at this sad time.

All are welcome for light refreshment at
