POEM

Daffodils

by William Wordsworth

read by Paul's mother, Marceline Dziura

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed - and gazed - but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

On the left, a large tree with dense green leaves frames the scene. In the foreground, tall reeds and grasses grow along the bank. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

When Tomorrow Comes

by David M. Romano

chosen by Simon

read by Paul's daughter, Rachael Birmingham

When tomorrow starts without me
And I'm not here to see,
If the sun should rise and find your eyes
All filled with tears for me.

I wish you wouldn't cry
The Way you did today,
While thinking of the many things
We did not get to say.

I know how much you love me
As much as I love you,
Each time that you think of me
I know you will miss me too.

When tomorrow starts without me,
Please try to understand,
That an angel came and called my name
And took me by the hand.

The background of the page is a soft-focus photograph of a natural scene. On the left, a tree with green leaves leans over a body of water. In the foreground, there are tall green reeds. The sky is bright and hazy, suggesting a sunny day. The overall tone is peaceful and hopeful.

The angel said my place was ready
In heaven far above,
And that I would have to leave behind
All those I dearly love.

But when I walked through Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,
When God looked down and smiled at me
From his golden throne.

He said this is eternity
And all I promised you,
Today for life on earth is done
But Here it starts a new.

I promise no tomorrow
For today will always last,
And Since each day's the exact same way
There is no longing for the past.

So when tomorrow starts without me
Do not think we're apart,
For every time you think of me
Remember I'm right here in your heart.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
