POEM
My Grandma
by granddaughter, Rachel

1. Although I knew this day was coming,
I hoped that it would not,
Somehow praying that I could change
the plot.
2. Answering the phone with your voice
That I shall miss,
'Hello darling' and giving your cheek
a kiss.
3. Not sure how you managed looking
After us all,
Sticking sellotape to your wallpaper,
Playing with tea sets and raiding
your scarf drawer!
4. Using all your post-its, eating all your toast,
Only two biscuits and your homemade chips I loved most.
5. Holidays to the caravan to sit beside
The sea,
Flying kites, visits to the farm and Safari parks for Ashleigh, you and me.
6. Every so often you'd teach me to knit
And sew, Attempting cushions had us in stitches and knitting even more so!

7. Watching you tiling your bathroom,
Wallpapering your own living room,
Cigarette in hand whilst Reupholstering your three piece suite, all
In an afternoon.

8. Downtime was reading books, with the occasional crossword and jigsaw
puzzle too,
Although most days you were out
With friends, cooking and cleaning
Were not for you.

9. There's just too many special
Memories to write, but a newspaper,
Strong tea and 'those apple things'
From Spar
Will always remind me of you, my wonderful Grandma.

A bouquet of vibrant red roses with green leaves and stems, resting on a light-colored wooden surface. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The background is a soft, out-of-focus white.

ADDRESS

followed by

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven,

hallowed be thy name;

thy kingdom come;

thy will be done;

on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,

as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;

but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,

the power and the glory,

for ever and ever.

Amen.

BLESSING

Only A Whisper Away
by Iris Hesselden

Come, dry your tears, smile again, love,
I'm only a whisper away.
Near in the dusk of the ev'ning,
Just out of sight through the day.
Hearing each prayer that you pray,
Sending my love to surround you,
I'm only a whisper away.

Come, dry your tears, smile again, love,
Remember the good times we've known,
Cherish the joy we discovered-
Love that was planted and grown.
Your road may seem lonely ahead,
And distant horizons look grey,
You won't be walking alone, love,
I'm only a whisper away.
