

Keith, Michele, Marie and all the family would like to thank everyone for your kind words and support, your presence today has been a great source of comfort to them.

They would like you to join them to celebrate the life of Ann and share your memories over refreshments at the Mundy Arms, Ashbourne Road, Mackworth, Derby.

If anyone wishes to make a donation in memory of Ann, a plate will be placed in the church and the chapel and donations will be given to the British Heart Foundation.

*If there is a tomorrow when we are not together,
There is something you must always remember:
You are braver than you believe,
Stronger than you seem
And smarter than you think.
But the most important thing is, even if we are apart,
I'll always be with you!*

God Saw You Getting Tired

God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched you
And saw you pass away,
And although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard-working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

Opening Hymn

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

Oh, Master, grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved, as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
In giving to all that we receive,
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Opening Prayer

First Reading

Romans, Chapter 6: verses 3-4 and 8-9
read by a Parishioner

Hymn

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; He leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul He doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for His own Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For Thou art with me, and Thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table Thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head Thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Scottish Psalter (1650)

Gospel

John, Chapter 14: verses 1-3 read by Father David

Homily

Bidding Prayers

Response to: Lord in your mercy is: 'Hear our Prayer.'
read by a Parishioner

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom, the power and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.
