Sunlight On The Garden

The sunlight on the garden hardens and grows cold,
We cannot cage the minute within its nets of gold.
When all is done, we cannot beg for pardon.

And, not expecting pardon, hardened in heart anew,
But be glad to have sat under thunder and rain with you,
And grateful, too, for sunlight on the garden.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.
