POEM

The Gardener's Morning

The robin's song at daybreak
Is a clarion call to me.
Get up and get out in the garden,
For the morning hours flee.

I cannot resist the summons,
What earnest gardener could?
For the golden hours of morning
Get into the gardener's blood.

The magic spell is upon me,
I'm glad that I did not wait;
For life's at its best in the morning,
As you pass through the garden gate.

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

Grandad

Our grandad kept a garden,
A garden of the heart;
He planted all the good things
That gave our lives their start.

He turned us to the sunshine
And encouraged us to dream:
Fostering and nurturing
The seeds of self esteem.

And when the winds and rain came,
He protected us enough;
But not too much because he knew
We would stand up strong and tough.

His constant good example
Always taught us right from wrong;
Markers for our pathway that will last
A lifetime long.

We are our grandad's garden,
We are his legacy.
Thank you, grandad,
We love you.
