POEM

Miss Me, But Let Me Go
Read by Kate Colclough

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me,
I want no rites in a gloom-filled room!
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared;
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey that we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart,
Go to the friends we know,
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds;
Miss me, but let me go.

HYMN

^{1.} Amazing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found,
Was blind, but now I see.

^{3.} Through many dangers, toils and snares
I have already come:
'Tis grace has brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

^{2.} 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

^{4.} The Lord has promised good to me,
His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures.

When God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
He put his arms around you
And whispered, "Come to me."
He didn't like what you went through
And he gave you rest.
His garden must be beautiful,
He only takes the best.
And when we saw you sleeping,
So peaceful and free from pain,
We wouldn't wish you back
To suffer that again.
Today we say goodbye
And as you take your final rest,
That garden must be beautiful
Because you are one of the best.

The family would like to thank you all for being here today and for your cards and kind messages of support at this sad time.

You are warmly invited to join Janis' family after the service at
