OPENING WORDS

Malcolm Barham, Civil Celebrant

POEM

Feel No Guilt In Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, he'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that he is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; he would not want you to,
He'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.

Let memories surround you. A word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day,
That brings him back as clearly as though he were still here
And fills you with the feeling that he is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And he will live forever, locked safely within your heart.

POEM

Smile by Spike Milligan

Smiling is infectious,
You catch it like the flu;
When someone smiled at me today,
I started smiling too.

I walked around the corner
And someone saw me grin -
When he smiled, I realised
I had passed it on to him.

I thought about the smile
And then realised its worth;
A single smile like mine
Could travel round the earth.

So, if you feel a smile begin,
Don't leave it undetected,
Start an epidemic
And get the world infected.
