POEM

When I Am Gone

When I come to the end of my journey
And I travel my last weary mile,
Just forget, if you can, that I ever frowned
And remember only the smile.

Forget unkind words I have spoken;
Remember some good I have done.
Forget that I ever had heartache
And remember I've had loads of fun.

Forget that I've stumbled and blundered
And sometimes fell by the way,
Remember I have fought some hard battles
And won, ere the close of the day.

Then forget to grieve for my going,
I would not have you sad for a day,
But in summer just gather some flowers
And remember the place where I lay.

And come in the shade of evening,
When the sun paints the sky in the west,
Stand for a few moments beside me
And remember only my best.

THE FINAL FAREWELL

PRAYER

We commend Barry into the mercy and keeping of God:

Gracious and loving God,
you know us from our beginning to our end,
and understand us better than we understand ourselves.
Receive with your infinite grace and compassion
our brother, Barry.
Enfold him in your everlasting arms
and keep him safe, for ever and ever.

Amen
