The background of the entire page is a dense, close-up photograph of pink and yellow flowers, likely alstroemerias, with green leaves. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, creating a vibrant and textured backdrop.

God's Garden

by Melissa Shreve

read by Mark Andrew

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the Earth
And saw your tired face.

He put his arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.

He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills too hard to climb,
He closed your weary eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you
The day God called you home.

One At Rest

read by Julie and Daniela

Think of me as one at rest,
For me you should not weep.
I have no pain, no troubled thoughts,
For I am just asleep.

The living, thinking me that was
Is now forever still,
And life goes on without me now,
As time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now
Because I've gone away,
Dwell not long upon it, friend,
For none of us can stay.

Those of you who liked me,
I sincerely thank you all,
And those of you who loved me,
I thank you most of all.

And in my fleeting lifespan,
As time went rushing by,
I found some time to hesitate,
To laugh, to love, to cry.

Matters it now if time began,
If time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all,
And now I am at peace.
