Reading

John, Chapter 14: verses 1-6

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name;
Thy Kingdom come;
Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.
Amen.

Hymn

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want;
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again,
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
E'en for his own Name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear none ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnishèd
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

Scottish Psalter (1650)

Poem

Remember Me

To the living, I am gone, to the sorrowful, I will never return.
To the happy, I am at peace, and to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen, I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.

So, as you stand upon a shore gazing at a beautiful sea.
As you look upon a flower and admire its simplicity.
Remember me, remember me in your heart.

Your thoughts, and your memories, of the times we loved.
The times we cried, the times we fought, the times we laughed.
For if you always think of me, I will never have gone.
