INTRODUCTION

Celebrant, Pete White

A bouquet of yellow roses is shown in the upper right corner of the page. The roses are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. They are set against a light-colored wooden background. The overall aesthetic is soft and elegant.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses.

As we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation
but deliver us from evil,

For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.

PRAYERS OF FAREWELL

No person is truly alone.

Those who live no more, whom we love,
Echo still within our thoughts, our words, our hearts.

And what they did and who they are
Become a part of all that we are forever.

The poet Samuel Butler wrote, and I quote:

‘I fall asleep in the full and certain hope that my slumber shall not be broken;
And that though I be all-forgetting,
Yet shall I not be all-forgotten,
But continue that life in thoughts and deeds of those I have loved.’

CLOSING WORDS

Think of me as one at rest,
For me you should not weep.
I have no pain, no troubled thoughts,
For I am just asleep.
The living, thinking me that was
Is now forever still,
And life goes on without me now,
As time forever will.

If your heart is heavy now
Because I've gone away,
Dwell not long upon it, friend,
For none of us can stay.
Those of you who liked me,
I sincerely thank you all,
And those of you who loved me,
I thank you most of all.

And in my fleeting lifespan,
As time went rushing by,
I found some time to hesitate,
To laugh, to love, to cry.
Matters it now if time began,
If time will ever cease?
I was here, I used it all,
And now I am at peace.
