Catalogue Of Cool

So let us take you back a while to where the coolness all began,
Our uncle once sported a very long hair style,
It was pretty 'far out' man.

As the years went by we learnt about the cool gigs he'd attended:
Ziggy and his Spiders, the Stones rocking out Hyde Park,
Tales of youthful escapades and nights that never ended.

A love of music and melody is one of our family pleasures,
From folk-rock, flute playing Jethro Tull (an acquired taste!)
to hardcore bluesy guitar riffs,
Our uncle enhanced our musical education with his array of recorded treasures.

An uncle who rides a motorbike, now that ranked fairly highly.
It didn't get much cooler, even though it wasn't a Harley!

His cool and calm demeanour helped whilst fishing by the river.
It was a peaceful pastime he always enjoyed, even when the waters didn't deliver!

His patience and humour were needed as he joined in with our Christmas games through the years.
He played with our toys and endured all the noise
but there was always plenty of laughter, rarely tears.

We know he liked a good old pub and a whiskey in the jar,
So raise your glass and send him a 'Cheers'
To the coolest uncle by far.
