Poem

Northern Soul

J. A. Nicholson

There is a genre of music,
They call it Northern Soul,
And it brought me the life I longed for
And a family who made me whole.

It carried me through a lifetime
Of highs and lows and all,
The rhythms, the dance and the melodies
Of a Northern smoky hall.

And the heartbeat that I have in me
Is the music and the dance and the joy,
And a young lad whose heart I captured;
My very own Northern Soul boy.

And now my own rhythm is slowing,
The memories of life never fail,
Like the friendships, the love, and the family
I found in that Northern dance hall.

Committal

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory,
for ever and ever.

Amen.
