Poem

Feel No Guilt in Laughter

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.
She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly recapture a time, an hour, a day
That brings her back as clearly as though she were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And she will live forever, locked safe within your heart.

Reflection Music

Songbird by Eva Cassidy

Blessed be our God,
who has blessed us all with the gift of this earthly life
and has given to our sister Donna
her span of years and gifts of character.

God our Father, we thank you now for all her life,
for every memory of love and joy,
for every good deed done by her
and every sorrow shared with us.

We thank you for her life and for her death,
we thank you for the rest in Eternity she now enjoys,
we thank you for giving her to us,
we thank you for the glory we shall one day be together.
Hear our prayers in your name. Amen.

Poem

Do Not Stand At My Grave And Weep

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glint on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you wake in the morning hush,

I am the swift, uplifting rush

Of quiet birds in circling flight.

I am the soft starlight at night.

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there, I do not sleep.
