Poem

Don't Think Of Him As Gone Away

read by Lucy

Don't think of him as gone away,
his journey's just begun;
life holds so many facets,
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.

And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched,
for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.

Hello Again

Poem

Remember Me

read by Tim Bailie

Speak of me as you have always done,
remember the good times, laughter and fun.
Share the happy memories we have made,
do not let them wither or fade.

I'll be with you in the summer sun
and when the winter's chill has come.
I'll be the voice that whispers in the breeze;
I'm peaceful now, put your mind at ease.

I've rested my eyes and gone to sleep,
but memories we shared are yours to keep.
Sometimes our final days maybe a test,
but remember me when I was at my best.

Although things may not be the same,
don't be afraid to use my name.
Let your sorrow last for just a while,
comfort each other and try to smile.

I've lived a life filled with joy and fun,
live on now - let the memories of me live on
in the hearts of my friends,
in the hearts of my family.

The Lord's Prayer
by Tim Bailie

*Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come; thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven.*

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

*For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.*
