WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

FIRST READING

read by Dr. Sarah Ciechanowicz

A reading from the book of Wisdom, Chapter 3: verses 1-9

The souls of the righteous are in the hands of God,
and no torment will ever touch them.

In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died,
and their departure was thought to be a disaster,
and their going from us to be their destruction;
but they are at peace.

For though in the sight of others they were punished,
their hope is full of immortality.

Having been disciplined a little,
they will receive great good,

because God tested them and found them worthy of himself;
like gold in the furnace he tried them,
and like a sacrificial burnt offering he accepted them.

In the time of their visitation they will shine forth,
and will run like sparks through the stubble.

They will govern nations and rule over peoples,
and the Lord will reign over them forever.

Those who trust in him will understand truth,
and the faithful will abide with him in love,
because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones,
and he watches over his elect.

Reader: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM

The Lord Is My Shepherd sung acapella by Rachel Ciechanowicz

Alleluia. This is the will of my Father, says the Lord, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given to me, and that I should raise it up on the last day. Alleluia.

MUSIC FOR REFLECTION

Prelude No. 6 - Chopin

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Priest: A reading from the holy gospel according to John.

All: Glory to you, Lord.

SECOND READING

A reading from the holy gospel according to John, Chapter 14: verses 1-6

Jesus said to his disciples,

“Do not let your hearts be troubled.

Believe in God, believe also in me.

In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places.

If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?

And if I go and prepare a place for you,

I will come again and will take you to myself,

so that where I am, there you may be also.

And you know the way to the place where I am going.”

Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going.

How can we know the way?”

Jesus said to him, “I am the way, and the truth, and the life.

No one comes to the Father except through me.”

Priest: This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
