WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

POEM

Remember Me

Don't remember me with sadness,
Don't remember me with tears,
Remember all the laughter,
We've shared throughout the years.
Now I am contented,
That my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing that I passed along the way
I made somebody smile.
When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.
So please don't be unhappy
Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you
Each morning, noon and night.

THE TRIBUTE

TIME FOR REFLECTION

Amazing Grace by André Rieu

POEM

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo, whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

Do Not Go Gentle Into That Good Night

Dylan Thomas

Richard Burton

Do not go gentle into that good night,
Old age should burn and rave at close of day;
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.

Though wise men at their end know dark is right,
Because their words had forked no lightning they
Do not go gentle into that good night.

Good men, the last wave by, crying how bright
Their frail deeds might have danced in a green bay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.

Wild men who caught and sang the sun in flight,
And learn, too late, they grieved it on its way,
Do not go gentle into that good night.

Grave men, near death, who see with blinding sight
Blind eyes could blaze like meteors and be gay,
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.

And you, my father, there on the sad height,
Curse, bless, me now with your fierce tears, I pray.
Do not go gentle into that good night.
Rage, rage against the dying of the light.

FAREWELL BRIAN

COMFORT FOR THE FUTURE

EXIT MUSIC

Santa Lucia

by André Rieu and the Johann Strauss Orchestra

The family would like to thank everyone for their kind words and support at this sad time. The family would also like to thank the Doctors, Consultants and Nursing staff at the Pulmonary Hypertension Unit at the Royal Hallamshire Hospital, Sheffield. They cared for Brian over and above expectations in the last weeks of his life. Their efforts to help Brian were very much appreciated, especially the care and attention given by Professor I. Sabroe, Consultant of Respiratory Medicine and his team.

The family would be very grateful if you would kindly complete an attendance card and return it to a member of A.W. Lymn at the end of the service.

All are welcome after the service at
The Great Northern, Station Road, Mickleover DE3 9FB.

Brian's family have organised two memorials. Brian did not want a "grave" so have arranged what we feel are two fitting tributes to his memory. The first is that a brick will be placed at the Crewe Alexandra football ground, so Brian will never miss another match.

The second is that his name will be on the side of the new lifeboat launching from Wells-Next-To-The-Sea when the new lifeboat station opens in 2022.

Brian enjoyed a number of holidays along the Norfolk coast and so we felt this was a fitting tribute.

Donations in memory of Brian for the
Pulmonary Hypertension Association UK,
