I Look To You

sung by Whitney Houston

Entrance Hymn

He who would valiant be 'gainst all disaster, let him in constancy follow the Master.
There's no discouragement shall make him once relent his first avowed intent to be a pilgrim.

Who so beset him round with dismal stories do but themselves confound; his strength the more is.
No foes shall stay his might; though he with giants fight,
he will make good his right to be a pilgrim.

Since, Lord, thou dost defend us with thy Spirit,
we know we at the end, shall life inherit.
Then fancies flee away! I'll fear not what men say,
I'll labour night and day to be a pilgrim.

Welcome and Opening Prayer

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Psalm 148

read by Roxanne Stefanovic

Reader: Alleluia! Praise the Lord from the heavens; praise him in the heights.

Praise him, all his angels; praise him, all his hosts.

Praise him, sun and moon; praise him, all shining stars.

Praise him, highest heavens, and the waters above the heavens.

Let them praise the name of the Lord. He commanded: they were made.

He fixed them forever and ever, gave a law which shall not pass away.

Praise the Lord from the earth, sea creatures and all oceans, fire and hail, snow and mist, stormy winds that obey his word;

All mountains and all hills, fruit trees and cedars, beasts, wild and tame, reptiles and birds on the wing;
all earth kings and peoples, earth's princes and rulers,
young men and maidens, old men together with children.

Let them praise the name of the Lord, for he alone is exalted,
the splendour of his name reaches beyond heaven and earth.

He exalts the strength of his people. He is the praise of all his saints, of the children of Israel, of the people to whom he is close. Alleluia!

At the end of the Reading:

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Hymn

The Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want. He makes me down to lie in pastures green. He leadeth me the quiet waters by.

My soul he doth restore again, and me to walk doth make, within the paths of righteousness, e'en for his own name's sake.

Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear no ill.
for thou art with me and thy rod and staff me comfort still.

My table thou hast furnished in presence of my foes, my head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life shall surely follow me.
and in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place shall be.

Tune: Crimond

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Jesus said, 'I am the resurrection and the life;
whoever believes in me will never die.'

Alleluia, Alleluia!

The Gospel
read by Father Jonathan Cotton

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A Reading from the holy Gospel according to John, Chapter 20: verses 11-18

All: Glory to you, Lord.

Mary of Magdala was standing outside near the tomb weeping. Then, as she wept, she stooped to look inside, and saw two angels in white sitting where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head, the other at the feet. They said, 'Woman, why are you weeping?' 'They have taken my Lord away' she replied, 'and I don't know where they have put him.' As she said this she turned round and saw Jesus standing there, though she did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus said to her, 'Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?' Supposing him to be the gardener, she said, 'Sir, if you have taken him away, tell me where you have put him, and I will go and remove him.' Jesus said, 'Mary!' She turned round then and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbuni!', which means Master. Jesus said to her, 'Do not cling to me because I have not yet ascended to the Father. But, go to the brothers and tell them: I am ascending to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.' So Mary of Magdala told the disciples, 'I have seen the Lord,' and that he had said these things to her.

At the end of the Reading:

Priest: The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
