READING

written by Ivor, Hazel's husband

Of in the still night
Ere slumbers chains have bound me
Fond memory brings a light
Of other days around me.

The smiles and tears,
Of other years,
The words of love then spoken.

The eyes that shone,
Now dimmed and gone,
And cheerful hearts now broken.

COMMITTAL

PSALM 23

The Lord Is My Shepherd

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

CLOSING WORDS

The definitive journey
...And I will leave,
But the birds will stay, singing:
And my garden will stay, with its green tree,
With its water well.

Many afternoons the sky will be blue and placid,
And the bells in the belfry will chime,
As they are chiming this very afternoon.

The people who have loved me will pass away,
And the town will burst anew every year,
But my spirit will always wander, nostalgic,
In the same peaceful corner of my garden.
