written by Molly's granddaughter, Honey

Mama, words can't describe how much I miss you. Saturday was the last day I got to see you. I love you with all my heart and much more. You're back with Grandad now and I hope you're both so happy to see each other again.

You mean the absolute world to me and I'm happy you're now at rest. Thanks for the great memories we got to make, it's a shame we can't make any more. Monday 27th September is the day you get sent off. I may not be able to see you again, but I know you're going to look as beautiful as ever. Thank you for making most of my teenage years as memorable as possible. I love you.

MOLLY'S WISHES

read by her daughter, Jannine

My eyes do see,
My ears do hear,
I am still me,
So let's be clear:
My memory may fade,
My walk may slow,
I am me inside
So don't let me go.
