'Who Has Seen The Wind?'

Who has seen the wind?

Neither I nor you.

But when the leaves hang trembling,

The wind is passing through.

Who has seen the wind?

Neither you nor I.

But when the trees bow down their heads,

The wind is passing by.

Reading

'To You'

A memory of our sojourn by the Sea,
A memory of the talk between us twain
A memory that will not go from me
Until we meet again.

...wild words beside the summer sea—
A baring of the heart's most secret pain.
A memory that will not go from me
Until we meet again.

I thank you for I hold you very dear.
I send you these rough first-fruits of my brain.
God keep you safe throughout the waning year
Until we meet again.

Rudyard Kipling
