

Together again

Chris and June thank you all for coming along today to help them say a final goodbye to a rather special lady. They warmly invite you to join them, after the service, at Heathley Park, Groby Road, LE3 9QE where the celebration of Aunty Joan's life will continue over refreshments.

Donations are kindly being accepted today for East Midlands Air Ambulance or via the link below where fond memories of Joan can also be shared.

The Broken Chain

Little did we know that morning,
God was going to call your name.

In life, we loved you dearly,
In death, we do the same.

It broke our hearts to lose you,
You did not go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.

You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide.
And, although we cannot see you,
You'll always be by our side.

Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
The chain will link again.

The Gentle Gardener

I'd like to leave but daffodils
To mark my little way,
To leave but tulips red and white
Behind me as I stray;
I'd like to pass away from earth
And feel I'd left behind
But roses and forget-me-nots
For all who come to find.

I'd like to sow the barren spots
With all the flowers of earth,
To leave a path where those who come
Should find but gentle mirth;
And when at last I'm called upon
To join the heavenly throng,
I'd like to feel along my way
I'd left no sign of wrong.

And yet the cares are many
And the hours of toil are few;
There is not time enough on earth
For all I'd like to do;
But, having lived and having toiled,
I'd like the world to find
Some little touch of beauty
That my soul had left behind.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, which art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come.

Thy will be done in earth,
as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive them that trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the Kingdom,
the power and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen.
