

In Loving Memory of

Kanwaljit Singh Vaseer

23rd May 1962 - 15th December 2017

Kaval was a good husband and we recently celebrated our 26th wedding anniversary. My British Asian background and his middle class Indian education complemented each other.

Being a Gemini, he was a great communicator, extrovert and a true performer who loved attention.

At home, he could be himself. The real Kaval was a very private, humble and simple person, a bit of an enigma.

He allowed me to pursue my own personal goals and to be my own person.

As a father he was loving, caring, wise and very relaxed.

‘Thank you, Pops for paying my mobile phone bill which went over the limit every month, for cleaning out the rabbit hutch, but most of all, being an amazing papa.’

Luis and I were privileged to share our special with you and the family.

We will treasure the memories forever.

You have left a massive void in our lives, but we take comfort in that you are reunited with Sahib.

Have a FANTASTIC time together, Pops!

Love you,
Nina, Priya and Luis
