

'I do not want you to be ignorant, concerning those who have fallen asleep lest your sorrows as others who have no hope, for if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so Jehovah God will bring with him those asleep in Jesus.'
1 Thessalonians, Chapter 4: verses 13 and 14

As believers, we have hope of the resurrection promised to God.

On behalf of Margaret and her family we would like to thank all the family and friends for all their wonderful acts of kindness, gifts, cards, time and phone calls of love and encouragement. Also we would like to thank all medical staff, doctors, palliative care and the Marie Curie Hospice team for all their care.

'Love is the greatest gift of all.'

Hymn

Just see yourself, just see me too;
Just see us all in a world that is new.

Think how you'll feel, how it will be,

To live in peace, to be truly free.

No evil one will then prevail;

Rule by our God cannot ever fail.

The time will have come for a new earthly start,
The song of our praises will pour out from our heart:

*"Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honour and praise to you belong."*

Now see yourself, and see me too;
And look ahead to a world that is new.

No sight we see, no sound we hear
Will cause alarm or give rise to fear.

All has come true, just as he said;

Now over mankind, his tent is spread.

He now shall awaken those sleeping in death;
Their voices will join us with ev'ry grateful breath:

*"Jehovah our God, how well you have done!
All things are new by the rule of your Son.
The fullness of our heart overflows in our song;
All glory and honour and praise to you belong."*
