A serene sunset over a beach. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm, golden glow across the sky and the water. The clouds are soft and wispy, catching the light. The waves are gentle, lapping at the sandy shore. The overall mood is peaceful and contemplative.

The background of the page is a photograph of a beach at sunset. The sky is filled with soft, golden and pinkish clouds. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the scene. The ocean waves are breaking on the shore, creating white foam. The sand in the foreground is smooth and light-colored.

POEM

Grandad's Paradise

written and read by granddaughter, Charlotte Harrison

Grandad's paradise
Of pots, plants, trowel and spade
Stood in his garden,
Watching the winter fade.

Spring has arrived,
What a joy to behold!
As the colours come to life
Of the bulbs that unfold.

Lovingly, he tendered
To each little flower,
Tulips, lupins, roses and marigolds.
In his garden, they tower.

And in the foliage,
In each scattered plot,
Is the most beautiful flower of all:
The 'forget-me-not'.

And when we're in our gardens,
He will bring the sunshine and the rain.
Grandad will be watching
Until we meet again.
